

SARAH POPE RODGERS

Women's Veteran Service – 1980

Sarah has been in the Oklahoma City area 41 years and a sanctioned bowler the same amount of time. She is described as having a fine personality, a natural leader and a dedicated skillful bowler. Sarah was named Bowler of the Year in 1954 and won Scratch League Trophy league in 1941, High Team Trophy league in 1960-61. She has had several other league honors as well, but it is her service that is being honored. She has attended WIBC National Tournament 20 times. She has been President of: 1940-41 Trophy Scratch League, 1948-49 Women's City League, 1947-48 & 1949-50 Women's City Bowling League, 1952-53 Oklahoma City Women's Bowling Association and Vice-President 1950-51 Women's 600 Club. Sarah was also a Director at the Oklahoma State Association and WIBC Nationals a number of times. She is now retired and living in Coalgate, Oklahoma. For being one of the most consistent high average bowlers during the 30's and 40's plus her dedication to the game and service throughout her career, the Oklahoma City Bowling Council inducts Sarah Pope Rodgers into its Bowling Hall of Fame.
